Afterlife - The Hedge Inspectors

٧1
Who's gonna join me in the afterlife
I'll be playing ukulele with my beautiful wife
We'll be singing that song that everybody hates
It's gonna be awesome it's gonna be great
Who's gonna join me, join me in the afterlife.
V2
Who's gonna join me in the promised land
After judgement day when the stuff hits the fan
We'll be singing that song that everybody hates
It's gonna be awesome it's gonna be great
Who's gonna join me, join me in the afterlife.
Bridge
Every song ever written in a golden folder
We won't get better but we won't get older
You can sing, you can swing, you can rap, you can croon
                                MuC7+9
                                            MuCdimb3add9
                MuC7
And nobody will notice
                         If you play out of tune
٧3
Who's gonna join me at the pearly gates
You can turn up early but we'll all be late
We'll be singing that song that everybody hates
It's gonna be awesome it's gonna be great
Who's gonna join me, join me in the afterlife.
V4 La La la over verse chords
repeat bridge

repeat V1 with last line repeated 3 times
